Cosmic Sounds!

July 6-9; 9:30-12:30

Sign your child up to experience the magic of science through art and music in days jam-packed with hands-on experiments, inventions, and exploration! We will study composers inspired by science and artists who pushed the boundaries of the art world. Explore art with exploding paint bags, ice chalk, and art robots and discover musical science with singing pipes, talking cups, and screaming balloons. Mix in a Mad Scientist day, Apollo projects, and reverse tie dying, and you're left with an unforgettable time!

SUMMER CAMPS 2015
Ms Georgia's Musical Beginnings

Epic Firsts of the 1920's

July 13-17; 9:30-12:30

Send your child back in time to the most hoppin' decade in American history! We will investigate the music of composers George Gershwin, Aaron Copland and others while learning about the firsts of their time: flight, automobiles, Babe Ruth and robots. Amelia Earhart herself will visit (courtesy of Smithsonian Institute)! Campers will create artwork each day in the style of Picasso, Matisse, and Escher, to name a few. Add in a bit of swing dancing, a murder mystery (as we learn about the birth of the FBI), musical softball, and a showing of the first talkie, and you have a homerun!

Around the World in Tasty Days

July 20-23; 9:30-12:30

Trek around the world to visit the native cultures of Africa, Asia, Australia, and South America! Envision a day of frying green bananas and preparing Moroccan fruity couscous after sculpting and painting a life-like African mask, followed by a lesson in African drumming and dancing by the Kanikouran West African Dance Company. Learn hemp braiding, leatherwork, Australian dot painting, and Chinese calligraphy, while enjoying the music of didgeridoos, bamboo flutes, panpipes, and the dulcimer. Be a part of the journey as we explore music, dance, and art from around the world!

Imagine That!

July 27-30; 9:30-12:30

Presenting a four day magical adventure in the land of imagination! We will revel in fairy tales, myths, and dreams through art, music, and hands-on activities! Think Mozart's Magic Flute and Tchaikovsky's Sleeping Beauty combined with art projects imitating the styles of ancient Greek art, Sandro Botticelli, Salvador Dali, and you have artistry and education at its peak. This week includes a storytelling workshop with award winning storyteller, Debra Mims! Treasure hunts, a Fairytale Party with costumes, and musical games are just a part of this creative camp!

Each camp is $120; 12 hours instruction; materials and snacks are included; for children ages 5-12; $50 deposit due by 15 June; for late registration, please call to check availability! Before and after care as well as Friday all day activities available. Please contact Ms Georgia to make arrangements. Be sure to ask about our sibling discount!

Broadway's greatest farce is light, fast-paced, witty, irreverent, and one of the funniest musicals ever written. It takes comedy back to its roots, combining situations from the time-tested 2000-year-old comedies of Roman playwright Plautus with the infectious energy of classic vaudeville. This unforgettable, hysterical musical has "something for everyone - a comedy tonight!" For more information, go to <https://www.newtowneplayers.org> or call

Drypoint Printmaking

Saturday, July 18, 12:00 noon - 4:00 pm

Fee: $40 Members / $50 Nonmembers

Fee of $20 for materials payable to the instructor

Instructor: Harriett Lawler

Favored by the old masters for its dramatic effects, drypoint is an intaglio printing process (such as etching or engraving), done without the use of acid. You will draw directly onto a zinc printing plate and will learn how to use hand-inking and wiping techniques. Making working proofs will help you achieve your final composition. You may wish to print an edition of your composition at this point, or you can add color to your prints using monotype techniques. For those interested, there will be an opportunity to create cards, either as an edition or as individual monoprints. To save time, please bring a photograph, or your own design, to use as a basis for your composition. All levels.

Introduction to the Art of Painting on Silk

Wednesday - Thursday, July 22 - 23, 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Fee: $210 Members / $220 Nonmembers

Instructor: Diane Tuckman, www.iteachsilkart.com

Apply the brush to silk once and you are hooked for ever! You will learn the basic silk painting techniques and vocabulary, painting eight technical pieces that you will be able to take home. The techniques taught are stretching, diluting, resisting, spotting, salting, double loading, wet-on-wet, fabric setting and more. There will be an in-depth discussion with many visual samples of hand painted fabrics. Diane is an accomplished silk painter and has co-written several books about this art form. Materials used during the workshop are included in the cost.

Bring latex gloves. No art experience is necessary to take this workshop.

Richard R. Clark Senior Center Book Discussion

Meets at 1:00 pm, on the first Thursday of each month at the Clark Senior Center, 1210 Charles Street, La Plata. For more information, call 301-934-9001.

July 2: The Murder of King Tut by James Patterson and Martin Dugard. Thrust onto Egypt's most powerful throne at the age of nine, King Tut's reign was fiercely debated from the outset. Behind the palace's veil of prosperity, bitter rivalries and jealousy flourished among the Boy King's most trusted advisors, and after only nine years, King Tut suddenly perished, his name purged from Egyptian history. Enchanted by the ruler's tragic story and hoping to unlock the answers to the 3,000 year-old mystery, Howard Carter made it his life's mission to uncover the pharaoh's hidden tomb. Now, James Patterson and Martin Dugard dig through stacks of evidence, X-rays, Carter's files, forensic clues, and stories told through the ages, to arrive at their own account of King Tut's life and death. The result is an exhilarating true crime tale of intrigue, passion, and betrayal that casts fresh light on the oldest mystery of all.

La Plata Library Book Discussion Group
 Meets at 7:00 pm on the second Thursday of every month at the La Plata Library, 2 Garrett Avenue, La Plata. Call 301-934-9001, for more information.

July 9: The Perks of Being a Wallflower by Stephen Chbosky. In this critically acclaimed debut novel, Perks follows observant "wallflower" Charlie as he charts a course through the strange world between adolescence and adulthood. First dates, family drama, and new friends. Sex, drugs, and The Rocky Horror Picture Show. Devastating loss, young love, and life on the fringes. Caught between trying to live his life and trying to run from it, Charlie must learn to navigate those wild and poignant roller-coaster days known as growing up.

Waldorf Book Discussion Group
 Meets on the first Saturday of every month (note date changed for July) from 9:30 - 10:30 am, at the P.D. Brown Memorial Library, 50 Village Street, Waldorf. To join, call 301-645-2864, and reserve a book with your library card.

July 11: Alice's Adventures in Wonderland & Through the Looking-Glass by Lewis Carroll. In 1862 Charles Lutwidge Dodgson, a shy Oxford mathematician with a stammer, created a story about a little girl tumbling down a rabbit hole. Thus began the immortal adventures of Alice, perhaps the most popular heroine in English literature. Countless scholars have tried to define the charm of the Alice books with those wonderfully eccentric characters such as the Queen of Hearts, Tweedledum and Tweedledee, the Cheshire Cat, Mock Turtle, and the Mad Hatter, by proclaiming that they really comprise a satire on language, a political allegory, a parody of Victorian children's literature, even a reflection of contemporary ecclesiastical history. Perhaps, as Dodgson might have said, Alice is no more than a dream, a fairy tale about the trials and tribulations of growing up or down, or all turned round, as seen through the expert eyes of a child.

July 11: The Joy Luck Club by Amy Tan.

Four mothers, four daughters, four families whose histories shift with the four winds depending on who's "saying" the stories. In 1949, four Chinese women, recent immigrants to San Francisco, begin meeting to eat dim sum, play mahjong, and talk. United in shared unspeakable loss and hope, they call themselves the Joy Luck Club. Rather than sink into tragedy, they choose to gather to raise their spirits and money. "To despair was to wish back for something already lost. Or to prolong what was already unbearable." Forty years later the stories and history continue. With wit and sensitivity, Amy Tan examines the sometimes painful, often tender, and always deep connection between mothers and daughters. As each woman reveals her secrets, trying to unravel the truth about her life, the strings become more tangled, more entwined.

July 21: Jam on the Vine: A Novel by LaShonda Katrice Barnett. Ivoe Williams, the precocious daughter of a Muslim cook and a metalsmith from Texas, first ignites her lifelong obsession with journalism when she steals a newspaper from her mother's white employer. After earning a scholarship to the prestigious Willetson College in Austin, and eventually settling in Kansas City, she founds the first female-run African American newspaper, Jam! On the Vine. In the throes of the Red Summer, the 1919 outbreak of lynchings and race riots across the Midwest, Ivoe risks her freedom, and her life, to call attention to the atrocities of segregation in the American prison system. Jam! On the Vine is both an epic vision of the hardships and injustices that defined an era and a moving and compelling story of a complicated history we only thought we knew.

August 5: The Namesake by Jhumpa Lahiri.

The Ganguli family struggles to transform from their tradition-bound life in Calcutta into becoming Americans. On the heels of their arranged wedding, Ashoke and Ashima Ganguli settle together in Cambridge, Massachusetts. When their son is born, the task of naming him betrays the vexed results of bringing old ways to the new world. Named for a Russian writer by his Indian parents in memory of a catastrophe years before, Gogol Ganguli knows only that he suffers the burden of his heritage as well as his odd, antic name. Lahiri brings great empathy to Gogol as he stumbles along the first-generation path, strewn with conflicting loyalties, comic detours, and wrenching love affairs. With penetrating insight, she reveals not only the defining power of the names and expectations bestowed upon us by our parents, but also the means by which we slowly, sometimes painfully, come to define ourselves.
