Dear CCAA Members and Friends,

Practice the 3 W's! Wear a mask, Wash your hands, Watch your distance.

The cold, icy days of February are behind us and we look forward, hopefully, to warmer days in March and beyond. Even during these challenging days, the CCAA has continued to serve the citizens of our county through our media connections, virtual meetings, and events.

March brings with it our continued streaming of our Retro Galleries, on Sunday and Wednesday at noon; the Friday evening concert series (6:00 PM) with performances by the Charles County Youth Orchestra; "Second Fridays" panel discussions that cover relevant issues in the arts; and our weekly NewsFlash that informs us of the many arts activities and opportunities in our area, available even during this time of Covid-19.

Also in March we will determine our first ever Teacher of the Year in the Arts Awards. One each at the Elementary, Middle School, and High School levels. At this time there are 16 nominees, pulled together from over 300 online recommendations. The winner at each level will receive a $500 award for their personal use, and an additional $500 for supplies for their students. The selection panel will meet mid-March and the winners will be notified shortly thereafter, and presented at our May Membership Meeting.

March will also see the start of our self-nomination process for those who wish to serve as members of the CCAA Board for FY 2022 and 2023. At this time, all of the current 11 Board members are willing to return, if elected, and there is room for two more individuals who might wish to serve in the future.

Stay healthy and keep your family safe! 🍷

Sincerely,

Robert

Robert K. Rausch

President, Charles County Arts Alliance

Charles County Arts Alliance Self-Nominations for Board of Directors

The Charles County Arts Alliance is still accepting self-nominations for the CCAA Board of Directors for the next two year term, from July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2023. The call is open until March 15, 2021. At this time, all 11 current board members are expected to self-nominate, and, if elected, leaves 2 additional board seats available.

Board of Directors elections will be held at the May 15, 2021 Annual Membership Meeting.

Here are some quick facts about our current self-nominees:

President – Robert K. Rausch

- Music Educator for 35 in Charles County, Prince George’s County, and North Carolina.
- Founder and current President of the CCAA, Founding Board member of Old Waldorf School and past conductor of the southern Maryland Concert Band.
- Since 2008, a volunteer, member, performer, stage/tech crew, and director for Newtowne Players, Port Tobacco Players, Tantallon Community Players, St. Mary’s College, College of Southern Maryland, Capitol Fringe and Hexagon.

Vice President – Cindy Johnson

- Worked with developers and is currently a Community Manager in Charles County.
- Current Vice President of the CCAA, and formerly served as Secretary/Treasurer, a founding member of the Maryland Community Theatre Festival Association, and a Past President and Board member of the Port Tobacco Players.
- Performed in countless plays and directed productions for Port Tobacco Players, Hard Bargain Players and the Black Box in Indian Head.

Secretary/Treasurer – Ronald Brown

- Member of the History faculty and later a division administrator at the College of Southern Maryland for forty years.
- Current member of the Charles County Arts Alliance, the Charles County Heritage Commission and the Historical Society of Charles County.
- Currently active as the Secretary/Treasurer of the CCAA and as the President of the CCHS and HSCC.

Director – Johnathon Clinkscales

- Former Chief of Staff for Maryland Senator Arthur Ellis and reporter/photographer for MD Independent newspaper; starting new marketing career with MedStar Health in March 2021.
- Advocate for and helped submit important legislation for Charles County and the State of Maryland at Large (via the Maryland General Assembly); established relationships with county/state leaders as well as community members during tenure with the MD Independent.
- Published author/visual and playwrights as part of local non-profits writers’ group.

Director – Barbara Graves

- Taught the ballet program for children and adults at Harmony Hall Art Center for 27 years.
- Current member of the CCAA Board of Directors. Participated in performing with the Ballet Petite of Washington throughout the metropolitan area.
- Since 1979, involved in performing, dancing and choreographing for the Port Tobacco Players, Hard Bargain Players, several dance companies, and High Schools.

Director – William (Bill) Graves

- 58 years in the printing and publishing industry. Retired as a Graphic Designer
- Current member of the Board of Directors of CCAA and Indian Head Center for the Arts.
- Over 40 years of involvement in the Southern Maryland theater community.

Director – Keith Linville

- Retired after 36 years of working for the Federal Government, made up of 15 months with the U.S. Post Office, 21 months with the FBI, and 33 years with the Department of Defense, where I worked in Computer Security.
- Member of the Port Tobacco Players since 1999, as a Producer, Director, Stage Manager, Actor, and Board Member, including serving as the President; additionally I am a Maryland Master Naturalist volunteering with the American Chestnut Land Trust and serving on their Outreach and Membership Committee.
- As a member of the CCAA I have been involved in the La Plata Arts and Entertainments District Working Group, ArtsFest 2021, the Community Arts Development (CAD) Grants Committee, the CCAA Arts Scholarship Committee (for High School Seniors), and the CCAA Theater Director’s Roundtable Planning Committee.

Director – Lew McIntyre

- Graduated from the US Naval Academy, served 20 years as Naval aviator, retiring as a Commander. Continued to support his aviation community as an engineer, 1990-2020. Did voluminous technical writing for 50 years, both in and out of uniform.
- Author of two books, one of which has earned three awards. Gave four presentations on Roman Maritime Trade in the Indian Ocean, related to one of the above books, most recently to the National Maritime Historical Society in NY.
- Vice President, Charles County chapter of the Maryland Writers’ Association, and member of Maryland Writers’ Association.

Maryland Arts Day

On Thursday, February 11, 2021, the Maryland arts sector arrived in a Zoom room that almost crashed Zoom. Maybe “crashed” is an exaggeration, however, the 400+ people who logged in that morning made their virtual presence known and celebrated the legacy of strong public support of the arts in Maryland. The CCAA was proud to represent Charles County during this awesome event. This year the Sue Hess Legacy Arts Advocate of the Year Award went to Kibibi Ajanku, founder of Sankofa Dance Theater and Mama Rashida Forman-Bey and Kay Lawal – Muhammad, both of WombWork Production, Inc. All of the awardees talked about and shared the impact their work has had not only in the Baltimore area, but across the state. The event’s keynote speaker, Aaron Maybin gave an inspiring speech highlighting his Art Activism curriculum, being taught in several Baltimore City schools, and reminded everyone listening of how the arts reminds us of our humanity.

Once the presentations ended, the CCAA joined its partnering arts councils, Calvert and St. Mary’s and various members from their arts communities in the Southern Maryland Delegation room. The entire Delegation room welcomed staffers from Delegates CT Wilson and Edith J. Patterson’s offices. Charles County’s arts community was proudly represented by Mike Gahan as he highlighted how state arts funding has benefited long standing county arts institutions in the county as well as the local businesses through attendance at arts events. Also in attendance were: Yvonne Medley of Life Journey’s Writer Guild, Andrew Blumhardt of Charles County Public Schools’ Fine and Performing Arts Office, and CCAA Board Members and Staff Robert Rausch, Lew McIntyre, Monique Walker, and Mary Whitmore.
